CHAPTER II.

EESTORATION OF MAN.

p&ffi
SECT. I.—Symptoms of Intended Restoration, ... 408
SECT. II.—What is needful in order to the Restoration of Man—(1.) In Relation to the Character of God, ... 478
SECT. III.—What is needful in order to the Restoration of Man—(2.) In its Relation to the Character of Man. The need of an Interposition in the Human Heart and Character, ... 480
SECT. IV.—Same Subject continued.—Means of applying the Aid, ... 487
ILLUSTRATIVE NOTE (u).—The German Intuitional Thcolnjry, ... 607
SECT. V.—The World to Come. . . . . , 6 1 2

APPENDIX 01 FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES,

AKT. I—Logical Nature of the Theistic Argument, ... IVH)
ART. II.—On the Properties of .Mattel*, ... J121
ART. III.—llelatic^ between Cause !;mil Kttect iu the 1'hy.xieal World, ... f»;!»
ART. IV.—Internal Belief in Causation, ... 6U7
ART. V.—The Living Writers who treat of the Principles of the Inductive Philosophy, ... 6.'.51
ART. VI.—Scheme of Intuitive Intellectual Principles eonalile logically, ... Supplemental Art.—On the Phenomenal and lielativo Th of Human Knowledge, ... 6,70
ART. VII.—Operation of Canso ana Meet in the llumtm Almd, , ... &2P